

BANK OF ASHLAND.—The books for subscription to the stock of this bank are now open at Shadyside, and will remain open until the stock is taken.

LODGE QUESTION.—A resolution passed both boards of the General Council Thursday night ordering a vote of the citizens to be taken on Saturday, the 23d inst., on the question of licensing houses for the sale of spirituous liquors.

PATSON'S MINSTREL BAND.—This is a new band lately organized in this city. They die course in every week, and the dancing and other performances are equally good. They have been performing at Jeffersonville for the past two nights to crowded houses. We understand they intend visiting next Shepherdville and Shelbyville for the purpose of giving concerts.

GRAND GIFT CONCERT.—Mr. A. Fenzl proposes to give a grand gift concert, through our advertising columns. There are 246 prizes, the lowest valued at $2 and the three highest at $10. The tickets to be issued are 15¢ and 25¢ per ticket, the drawing to take place within twenty days. Mr. Fenzl has been a citizen of Louisville for 15 years, and has resided in this city above on Market street, above Fifth. We can say from personal knowledge of Mr. F. that he will faithfully fulfill whatever he promises to do.

MR. CURRAS'S REHEARSAL.—Mr. Curras had a splendidly arranged rehearsal of the large new building on the Northeast corner of Main and Fifth streets. It is roomy, well-lighted, and furnished very neatly. Attached to it is a beer saloon, and beneath it the cellar is the kitchen. It intends to keep all the luxuries that the market affords. Mr. R. is a worthy young man, and his enterprise deserves success.

DR. BANNING.—Finds it impossible to reach Louisville on Tuesday, the 20th of April, when he can conveniently expect to be here. He will be at St. Louis on Monday and Tuesday, the 24th and 25th inst., and probably in Danville on Thursday and Friday, the 27th and 28th inst.

CONCERT BY THE PUPILS OF THE KENTUCKY INSTITUTION FOR THE BLIND.—The sympathies of the pupils of the Kentucky Institution for the Blind were greatly moved recently by the suffering condition of the blind music teacher, Mr. Gottschall, who after a long-continued illness from consumption, died last Thursday. The pupils of the blind school were engaged in preparing for a concert in the benefit of Mr. Gottschall, and the blind students themselves have now, very properly, determined to give it for the benefit of his interesting family, consisting of a widow and three children. We understand that the concert will take place next Friday evening, at the Christian Church, corner of Walnut and Fourth streets. A number of the friends of Mr. Gottschall, whose Christian kindness and affection soothed and comforted him in his afflictions, are actively engaged in assisting to make the concert a success. There has ever been, in the history of this country, no more touching instance of the best feelings of sympathy, than this one undoubtedly. The pupils of the Kentucky Institution for the Blind are able to give a concert well worth the attention of lovers of music, and in this benevolent concert they present a beautiful evidence of the uses of those State appropriations which placed the means of education within the reach of the blind. Prior to the establishment of this school, the blind children of Kentucky were wholly destitute of mental improvement, and had scarcely any useful training, but were objects of charity and a charge upon the State. Now, they are finely educated—made happy, useful, and enterprising members of society; they are longer, through life, a charge upon the public treasury as paupers, but are not only able to support themselves, but able to contribute to the comfort, happiness, and welfare of their parents and among themselves. We earnestly hope that these concert for the benefit of Mr. Gottschall's family will prove a source of happiness to themselves in enabling them to pour a bounteous assistance into the hands of the widow and the orphans under her care.

MR. SAMUEL HYMAN.—Will sell at auction that morning at 10 o'clock, on the premises, corner of Green and Sixth streets, a valuable two-story brick building, suitable for almost any kind of business, and large enough for a store and dwelling or for several offices, with a large rear yard. All for $10,000. Also a large lot of well-constructed furniture, with a view to the greatest advantage, with a due regard to their efficiency as war vessels. Their removal is to be for the use of speculators who had better attend this sale, as it will be positive.

WASHINGTON.—Three very amusing pieces are on the bill for to-night. Mr. Davidge appears in all of them.

On Monday evening Mrs. Coleman Poole takes a benefit. She is a favorite of the visitors of the theater and they will doubtless embrace the opportunity to show it by their presence on the occasion.

THE CONCERT AND BALL.—We must again remind the ladies and gentlemen of the concert and ball which is to be given by the Orpheus Society, on Monday evening next, for the benefit of the German Protestant Orphan Asylum. The entertainment will be a very fine one. The institution by which it is given very much in need of means.

A JUDGMENT.—Has been obtained in the U. S. District Court of Illinois, against the Ohio and Mississippi R. R. Co., at the suit of H. D. Bacon, for over $357,000. It is said that the property of the Company, along the line of the road, will be sold on the execution of the Marshal, after being advertised according to law.

IVER AND STEAMBOAT MATTERS.

The river commenced rising yesterday. The telegraph reports it rising at Cincinnati and also at Pittsburgh; at the latter point the ice has doubtless given way on this.

The St. Louis papers of Thursday have dispatches from the upper Mississippi and Illinois rivers which hold out the hope that both of these rivers will be open.

THE CUMBERLAND RIVER.—The water was falling on Thursday last with 61 feet on the shoal.

FOR NEW ORLEANS.—The magnificent steamer Robert J. Ward is advertised to leave for New Orleans this evening. She had not arrived at dark last night—though this was over.

We learn from the New Orleans Delta that the large steamers, which have been so long held up in the Mississippi, are to be sold to parties in St. Louis and will be resold on their arrival in New Orleans.

THE CONCERT AND BALL.—We must again remind the ladies and gentlemen of the concert and ball which is to be given by the Orpheus Society, on Monday evening next, for the benefit of the German Protestant Orphan Asylum. The entertainment will be a very fine one. The institution by which it is given very much in need of means.

A JUDGMENT.—Has been obtained in the U. S. District Court of Illinois, against the Ohio and Mississippi R. R. Co., at the suit of H. D. Bacon, for over $357,000. It is said that the property of the Company, along the line of the road, will be sold on the execution of the Marshal, after being advertised according to law.

IVER AND STEAMBOAT MATTERS.

The river commenced rising yesterday. The telegraph reports it rising at Cincinnati and also at Pittsburgh; at the latter point the ice has doubtless given way on this.

The St. Louis papers of Thursday have dispatches from the upper Mississippi and Illinois rivers which hold out the hope that both of these rivers will be open.

THE CUMBERLAND RIVER.—The water was falling on Thursday last with 61 feet on the shoal.

FOR NEW ORLEANS.—The magnificent steamer Robert J. Ward is advertised to leave for New Orleans this evening. She had not arrived at dark last night—though this was over.

We learn from the New Orleans Delta that the large steamers, which have been so long held up in the Mississippi, are to be sold to parties in St. Louis and will be resold on their arrival in New Orleans.

THE CONCERT AND BALL.—We must again remind the ladies and gentlemen of the concert and ball which is to be given by the Orpheus Society, on Monday evening next, for the benefit of the German Protestant Orphan Asylum. The entertainment will be a very fine one. The institution by which it is given very much in need of means.

A JUDGMENT.—Has been obtained in the U. S. District Court of Illinois, against the Ohio and Mississippi R. R. Co., at the suit of H. D. Bacon, for over $357,000. It is said that the property of the Company, along the line of the road, will be sold on the execution of the Marshal, after being advertised according to law.

IVER AND STEAMBOAT MATTERS.

The river commenced rising yesterday. The telegraph reports it rising at Cincinnati and also at Pittsburgh; at the latter point the ice has doubtless given way on this.

The St. Louis papers of Thursday have dispatches from the upper Mississippi and Illinois rivers which hold out the hope that both of these rivers will be open.

THE CUMBERLAND RIVER.—The water was falling on Thursday last with 61 feet on the shoal.

FOR NEW ORLEANS.—The magnificent steamer Robert J. Ward is advertised to leave for New Orleans this evening. She had not arrived at dark last night—though this was over.

We learn from the New Orleans Delta that the large steamers, which have been so long held up in the Mississippi, are to be sold to parties in St. Louis and will be resold on their arrival in New Orleans.

THE CONCERT AND BALL.—We must again remind the ladies and gentlemen of the concert and ball which is to be given by the Orpheus Society, on Monday evening next, for the benefit of the German Protestant Orphan Asylum. The entertainment will be a very fine one. The institution by which it is given very much in need of means.

A JUDGMENT.—Has been obtained in the U. S. District Court of Illinois, against the Ohio and Mississippi R. R. Co., at the suit of H. D. Bacon, for over $357,000. It is said that the property of the Company, along the line of the road, will be sold on the execution of the Marshal, after being advertised according to law.

IVER AND STEAMBOAT MATTERS.

The river commenced rising yesterday. The telegraph reports it rising at Cincinnati and also at Pittsburgh; at the latter point the ice has doubtless given way on this.

The St. Louis papers of Thursday have dispatches from the upper Mississippi and Illinois rivers which hold out the hope that both of these rivers will be open.

THE CONCERT AND BALL.—We must again remind the ladies and gentlemen of the concert and ball which is to be given by the Orpheus Society, on Monday evening next, for the benefit of the German Protestant Orphan Asylum. The entertainment will be a very fine one. The institution by which it is given very much in need of means.

A JUDGMENT.—Has been obtained in the U. S. District Court of Illinois, against the Ohio and Mississippi R. R. Co., at the suit of H. D. Bacon, for over $357,000. It is said that the property of the Company, along the line of the road, will be sold on the execution of the Marshal, after being advertised according to law.

IVER AND STEAMBOAT MATTERS.

The river commenced rising yesterday. The telegraph reports it rising at Cincinnati and also at Pittsburgh; at the latter point the ice has doubtless given way on this.

The St. Louis papers of Thursday have dispatches from the upper Mississippi and Illinois rivers which hold out the hope that both of these rivers will be open.

THE CONCERT AND BALL.—We must again remind the ladies and gentlemen of the concert and ball which is to be given by the Orpheus Society, on Monday evening next, for the benefit of the German Protestant Orphan Asylum. The entertainment will be a very fine one. The institution by which it is given very much in need of means.

A JUDGMENT.—Has been obtained in the U. S. District Court of Illinois, against the Ohio and Mississippi R. R. Co., at the suit of H. D. Bacon, for over $357,000. It is said that the property of the Company, along the line of the road, will be sold on the execution of the Marshal, after being advertised according to law.

IVER AND STEAMBOAT MATTERS.

The river commenced rising yesterday. The telegraph reports it rising at Cincinnati and also at Pittsburgh; at the latter point the ice has doubtless given way on this.

The St. Louis papers of Thursday have dispatches from the upper Mississippi and Illinois rivers which hold out the hope that both of these rivers will be open.

THE CONCERT AND BALL.—We must again remind the ladies and gentlemen of the concert and ball which is to be given by the Orpheus Society, on Monday evening next, for the benefit of the German Protestant Orphan Asylum. The entertainment will be a very fine one. The institution by which it is given very much in need of means.

A JUDGMENT.—Has been obtained in the U. S. District Court of Illinois, against the Ohio and Mississippi R. R. Co., at the suit of H. D. Bacon, for over $357,000. It is said that the property of the Company, along the line of the road, will be sold on the execution of the Marshal, after being advertised according to law.

IVER AND STEAMBOAT MATTERS.

The river commenced rising yesterday. The telegraph reports it rising at Cincinnati and also at Pittsburgh; at the latter point the ice has doubtless given way on this.

The St. Louis papers of Thursday have dispatches from the upper Mississippi and Illinois rivers which hold out the hope that both of these rivers will be open.

THE CONCERT AND BALL.—We must again remind the ladies and gentlemen of the concert and ball which is to be given by the Orpheus Society, on Monday evening next, for the benefit of the German Protestant Orphan Asylum. The entertainment will be a very fine one. The institution by which it is given very much in need of means.

A JUDGMENT.—Has been obtained in the U. S. District Court of Illinois, against the Ohio and Mississippi R. R. Co., at the suit of H. D. Bacon, for over $357,000. It is said that the property of the Company, along the line of the road, will be sold on the execution of the Marshal, after being advertised according to law.

IVER AND STEAMBOAT MATTERS.

The river commenced rising yesterday. The telegraph reports it rising at Cincinnati and also at Pittsburgh; at the latter point the ice has doubtless given way on this.

The St. Louis papers of Thursday have dispatches from the upper Mississippi and Illinois rivers which hold out the hope that both of these rivers will be open.

THE CONCERT AND BALL.—We must again remind the ladies and gentlemen of the concert and ball which is to be given by the Orpheus Society, on Monday evening next, for the benefit of the German Protestant Orphan Asylum. The entertainment will be a very fine one. The institution by which it is given very much in need of means.

A JUDGMENT.—Has been obtained in the U. S. District Court of Illinois, against the Ohio and Mississippi R. R. Co., at the suit of H. D. Bacon, for over $357,000. It is said that the property of the Company, along the line of the road, will be sold on the execution of the Marshal, after being advertised according to law.

IVER AND STEAMBOAT MATTERS.

The river commenced rising yesterday. The telegraph reports it rising at Cincinnati and also at Pittsburgh; at the latter point the ice has doubtless given way on this.

The St. Louis papers of Thursday have dispatches from the upper Mississippi and Illinois rivers which hold out the hope that both of these rivers will be open.

THE CONCERT AND BALL.—We must again remind the ladies and gentlemen of the concert and ball which is to be given by the Orpheus Society, on Monday evening next, for the benefit of the German Protestant Orphan Asylum. The entertainment will be a very fine one. The institution by which it is given very much in need of means.

A JUDGMENT.—Has been obtained in the U. S. District Court of Illinois, against the Ohio and Mississippi R. R. Co., at the suit of H. D. Bacon, for over $357,000. It is said that the property of the Company, along the line of the road, will be sold on the execution of the Marshal, after being advertised according to law.

IVER AND STEAMBOAT MATTERS.

The river commenced rising yesterday. The telegraph reports it rising at Cincinnati and also at Pittsburgh; at the latter point the ice has doubtless given way on this.

The St. Louis papers of Thursday have dispatches from the upper Mississippi and Illinois rivers which hold out the hope that both of these rivers will be open.

THE CONCERT AND BALL.—We must again remind the ladies and gentlemen of the concert and ball which is to be given by the Orpheus Society, on Monday evening next, for the benefit of the German Protestant Orphan Asylum. The entertainment will be a very fine one. The institution by which it is given very much in need of means.

A JUDGMENT.—Has been obtained in the U. S. District Court of Illinois, against the Ohio and Mississippi R. R. Co., at the suit of H. D. Bacon, for over $357,000. It is said that the property of the Company, along the line of the road, will be sold on the execution of the Marshal, after being advertised according to law.

IVER AND STEAMBOAT MATTERS.

The river commenced rising yesterday. The telegraph reports it rising at Cincinnati and also at Pittsburgh; at the latter point the ice has doubtless given way on this.

The St. Louis papers of Thursday have dispatches from the upper Mississippi and Illinois rivers which hold out the hope that both of these rivers will be open.

THE CONCERT AND BALL.—We must again remind the ladies and gentlemen of the concert and ball which is to be given by the Orpheus Society, on Monday evening next, for the benefit of the German Protestant Orphan Asylum. The entertainment will be a very fine one. The institution by which it is given very much in need of means.

A JUDGMENT.—Has been obtained in the U. S. District Court of Illinois, against the Ohio and Mississippi R. R. Co., at the suit of H. D. Bacon, for over $357,000. It is said that the property of the Company, along the line of the road, will be sold on the execution of the Marshal, after being advertised according to law.

IVER AND STEAMBOAT MATTERS.

The river commenced rising yesterday. The telegraph reports it rising at Cincinnati and also at Pittsburgh; at the latter point the ice has doubtless given way on this.

The St. Louis papers of Thursday have dispatches from the upper Mississippi and Illinois rivers which hold out the hope that both of these rivers will be open.

THE CONCERT AND BALL.—We must again remind the ladies and gentlemen of the concert and ball which is to be given by the Orpheus Society, on Monday evening next, for the benefit of the German Protestant Orphan Asylum. The entertainment will be a very fine one. The institution by which it is given very much in need of means.

A JUDGMENT.—Has been obtained in the U. S. District Court of Illinois, against the Ohio and Mississippi R. R. Co., at the suit of H. D. Bacon, for over $357,000. It is said that the property of the Company, along the line of the road, will be sold on the execution of the Marshal, after being advertised according to law.

IVER AND STEAMBOAT MATTERS.

The river commenced rising yesterday. The telegraph reports it rising at Cincinnati and also at Pittsburgh; at the latter point the ice has doubtless given way on this.

The St. Louis papers of Thursday have dispatches from the upper Mississippi and Illinois rivers which hold out the hope that both of these rivers will be open.

THE CONCERT AND BALL.—We must again remind the ladies and gentlemen of the concert and ball which is to be given by the Orpheus Society, on Monday evening next, for the benefit of the German Protestant Orphan Asylum. The entertainment will be a very fine one. The institution by which it is given very much in need of means.

A JUDGMENT.—Has been obtained in the U. S. District Court of Illinois, against the Ohio and Mississippi R. R. Co., at the suit of H. D. Bacon, for over $357,000. It is said that the property of the Company, along the line of the road, will be sold on the execution of the Marshal, after being advertised according to law.

IVER AND STEAMBOAT MATTERS.

The river commenced rising yesterday. The telegraph reports it rising at Cincinnati and also at Pittsburgh; at the latter point the ice has doubtless given way on this.

